

Faith has become Amen

What is Faith? Faith is the power which conquers the world (system).

1 John 5:4 "... and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith."

Hebrews 11:1 "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

Faith, in the Hebrew language is the word: אמוּן 'emuwn'. This word אמוּן 'emuwn' comes from the root word אמן 'amen', which is our word: Amen and means: 'so be it'.

These two words אמוּן and אמן are almost identical in spelling, pronunciation and in meaning. The pictographic meaning of the word אמוּן 'emuwn', or Faith, is: 'The Life which the Mother (the 'created', that which comes 'out of' the Father) will bring forth' and of אמן 'amen', or Amen is: 'The Life of the Mother established' or, 'so be it' or, 'Life of the Created made firm. While אמוּן 'emuwn', or 'Faith', assures an expectancy, אמן 'amen', or Amen, affirms that the expectancy is established.

Amen is 'Faith Con-firm-ed'.

The words 'Faith' and 'Amen' characterize therefore 'birthing'. As Faith will be made complete inside of man, it overcomes the 'world' (system), which is empowered by man's 'self' consciousness, and then Amen is born into Faith. Because in Him our Faith will be finished¹, our 'Faith made full', to be a witness in Him, the Amen². The word אמן 'amen' is therefore not the final word of a matter but the 'beginning' of a New Thing.

As our forefathers, we will all die in אמוּן 'Faith'³, our body with Him on the cross⁴ and we will so 'cross over' from 'death' into 'Life'. We will 'cross over' from being strangers on the earth into coming to know Him, Elohim, in our new country⁵.

The Transformation process from Faith into Amen is summarized in the text of Hebrews 11:1

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

This Transformation process is confirmed by the placement of this verse in the book of Hebrews. The word 'Hebrew' is in the Hebrew language: עברי ibriy, meaning: 'to cross over' (a Hebrew 'crosses over' as Abraham, as a Hebrew, 'crossed over' from Ur into a New Country, which pictures our 'crossing over' from a flesh- into a spirit mindset). Chapter 11 verse 1 shows '3' numbers '1' which means: 'the substance (3) of oneness (1)'. Thus the reference Hebrews 11:1 means: 'crossing over (from a scientific mindset) into the substance (spirit consciousness) of Oneness' → 'Amen'.

When and how will the אמן 'Amen' (birthing) start?

Romans 10:17 "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of Elohim."

When we realize that the אמן 'Amen' is the beginning of that which is stated before, we have 'heard' Him at the end of His 6 days, speaking His Word and we are ready to leave the womb. When we are then birthed in His Rest, His 7th day, the Word has established Faith and we are born as the 'Amen' and receive the Promises given to our fathers⁶.
